10 shall file an answer or motion permitted under Rule 12 within twenty-one (21) days after service.

11 (3) Filing and Service by Parties, Generally

12 All attorneys admitted to practice before this Court are required to file documents 13 electronically via the Court's CM/ECF system. Counsel are directed to the Court's website, 14 www.wawd.uscourts.gov, for a detailed description of the requirements for filing via CM/ECF.
15 All non-attorneys, such as pro se parties and/or prisoners, may continue to file a paper original 16 with the Clerk. All filings, whether filed electronically or in traditional paper format, must indicate 17 in the upper right-hand corner the name of the magistrate judge to whom the document is directed.

18 For any party filing electronically, when the total of all pages of a filing exceeds fifty (50)
19 pages in length, a paper copy of the document (with tabs or other organizing aids as necessary)
20 shall be delivered to the Clerk's Office for chambers. The chambers copy must be clearly marked 21 with the words "Courtesy Copy of Electronic Filing for Chambers."

22 Any document filed with the Court must be accompanied by proof that it has been served 23 upon all parties that have entered a notice of appearance in the underlying matter.

1 (4) Motions, Generally

2 Any request for court action shall be set forth in a motion, properly filed and served.
3 Pursuant to LCR 7(b), any argument being offered in support of a motion shall be submitted as a 4 part of the motion itself and not in a separate document. The motion shall include in its caption 5 (immediately below the title of the motion) a designation of the date the motion is to be noted for 6 consideration upon the Court's motion calendar.

7 Stipulated and agreed motions, motions to file over-length motions or briefs, motions for 8 reconsideration, joint submissions pursuant to the option procedure established in LCR 37(a)(2), 9 motions for default, requests for the clerk to enter default judgment, and motions for the court to 10 enter default judgment where the opposing party has not appeared shall be noted for consideration 11 on the day they are filed. See LCR 7(d)(1). All other non-dispositive motions shall be noted for 12 consideration no earlier than the third Friday following filing and service of the motion. See LCR 13 7(d)(3). All dispositive motions shall be noted for consideration no earlier than the fourth Friday 14 following filing and service of the motion. Id.

15 For electronic filers, all briefs and affidavits in opposition to either a dispositive or non-16 dispositive motion shall be filed and served not later than 11:59 p.m. on the Monday immediately
17 preceding the date designated for consideration of the motion. If a party (i.e., a pro se litigant 18 and/or prisoner) files a paper original, that opposition must be received in the Clerk's office by 19 4:30 p.m. on the Monday preceding the date of consideration.

1 The party making the motion may file and serve, not later than 11:59 p.m. (if filing
2 electronically) or 4:30 p.m. (if filing a paper original with the Clerk's office) on the date designated 3 for consideration of the motion, a reply to the opposing party's briefs and affidavits.

4 (5) Motions to Dismiss and Motions for Summary Judgment

5 Parties filing motions to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil 6 Procedure and motions for summary judgment pursuant to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil 7 Procedure should acquaint themselves with those rules. As noted above, these motions shall be 8 noted for consideration no earlier than the fourth Friday following filing and service of the motion.

9 Defendants filing motions to dismiss or motions for summary judgment are advised that they 10 MUST serve a Rand notice concurrently with motions to dismiss and motions for summary 11 judgment so that pro se prisoner plaintiffs will have fair, timely and adequate notice of what is 12 required of them in order to oppose those motions. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 941 (9th Cir.
13 2012). The Ninth Circuit has set forth model language for such notices:

14 A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of 15 Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

16 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary
17 judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no 18 genuine issue of material fact – that is, if there is no real dispute about any 19 fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for 20 summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will 21 end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary 22 judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn 23 testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

1 Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 963 (9th Cir. 1998) (emphasis added). Defendants who fail to 2 file and serve the required Rand notice on Plaintiff may have their motion stricken from the Court's 3 calendar with leave to re-file.

4 (6) Direct Communications with District Judge or Magistrate Judge

5 No direct communication is to take place with the District Judge or Magistrate Judge with 6 regard to this case. All relevant information and papers are to be directed to the Clerk.

7 (7) The Clerk is directed to send copies of this Order and of the Court's pro se 8 instruction sheet to Plaintiff. The Clerk is further directed send a copy of this Order and a courtesy 9 copy of Plaintiff's complaint to the Pierce County Prosecutor's Office, by first-class mail.
